

Soaring Eagles

Summer
2016

What makes me angry is when my little brother annoys me when I'm sleep in I tell him to stop but he don't so I yell at him.

Another thing that makes me mad is when other people pick on the nice people in they plz stop but they don't.

That's what makes me mad

ONE DAY, TAEVON WENT TO SCHOOL. MARGIEDA AND ALISHA WERE THERE TOO. THERE WERE BOOKS AND PENCILS AND SCARF HALL SMILLS. LOVE OLD CRAWNS AND FLOOR POLISH. BUT DON'T BE MISTAKEN - IT WAS A GOOD SAMP.

Angry Words

You Stink
I hate you
Dummy
You're Stupid
NumbSkull
Fortface
Butt head
You're ugly

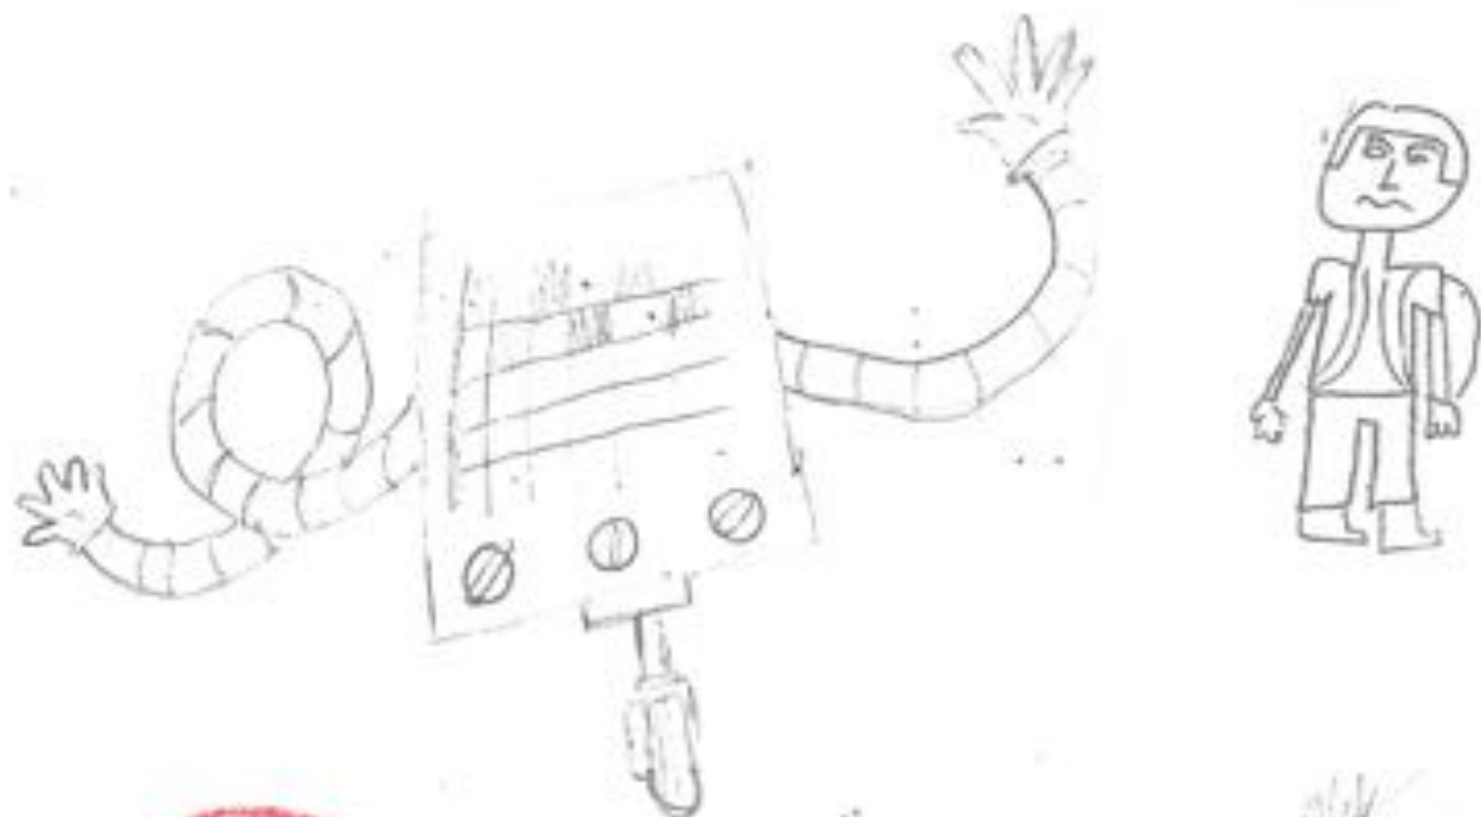

Feel Good Words

You look pretty
You look nice today!
I like your jacket!
How are you doing today?

My dad was a Eagle where would I fly
If I can fly like to Egypt because Look funny

My father's animal is a lion. I have a dog named Waffles. My dad is a musician and my mom works with kids. I am a swimmer and I love basketball.

I Love

My Cat!

I feel a high when I fall. up.

I feel angry when I fall.

I feel better when I get back up.

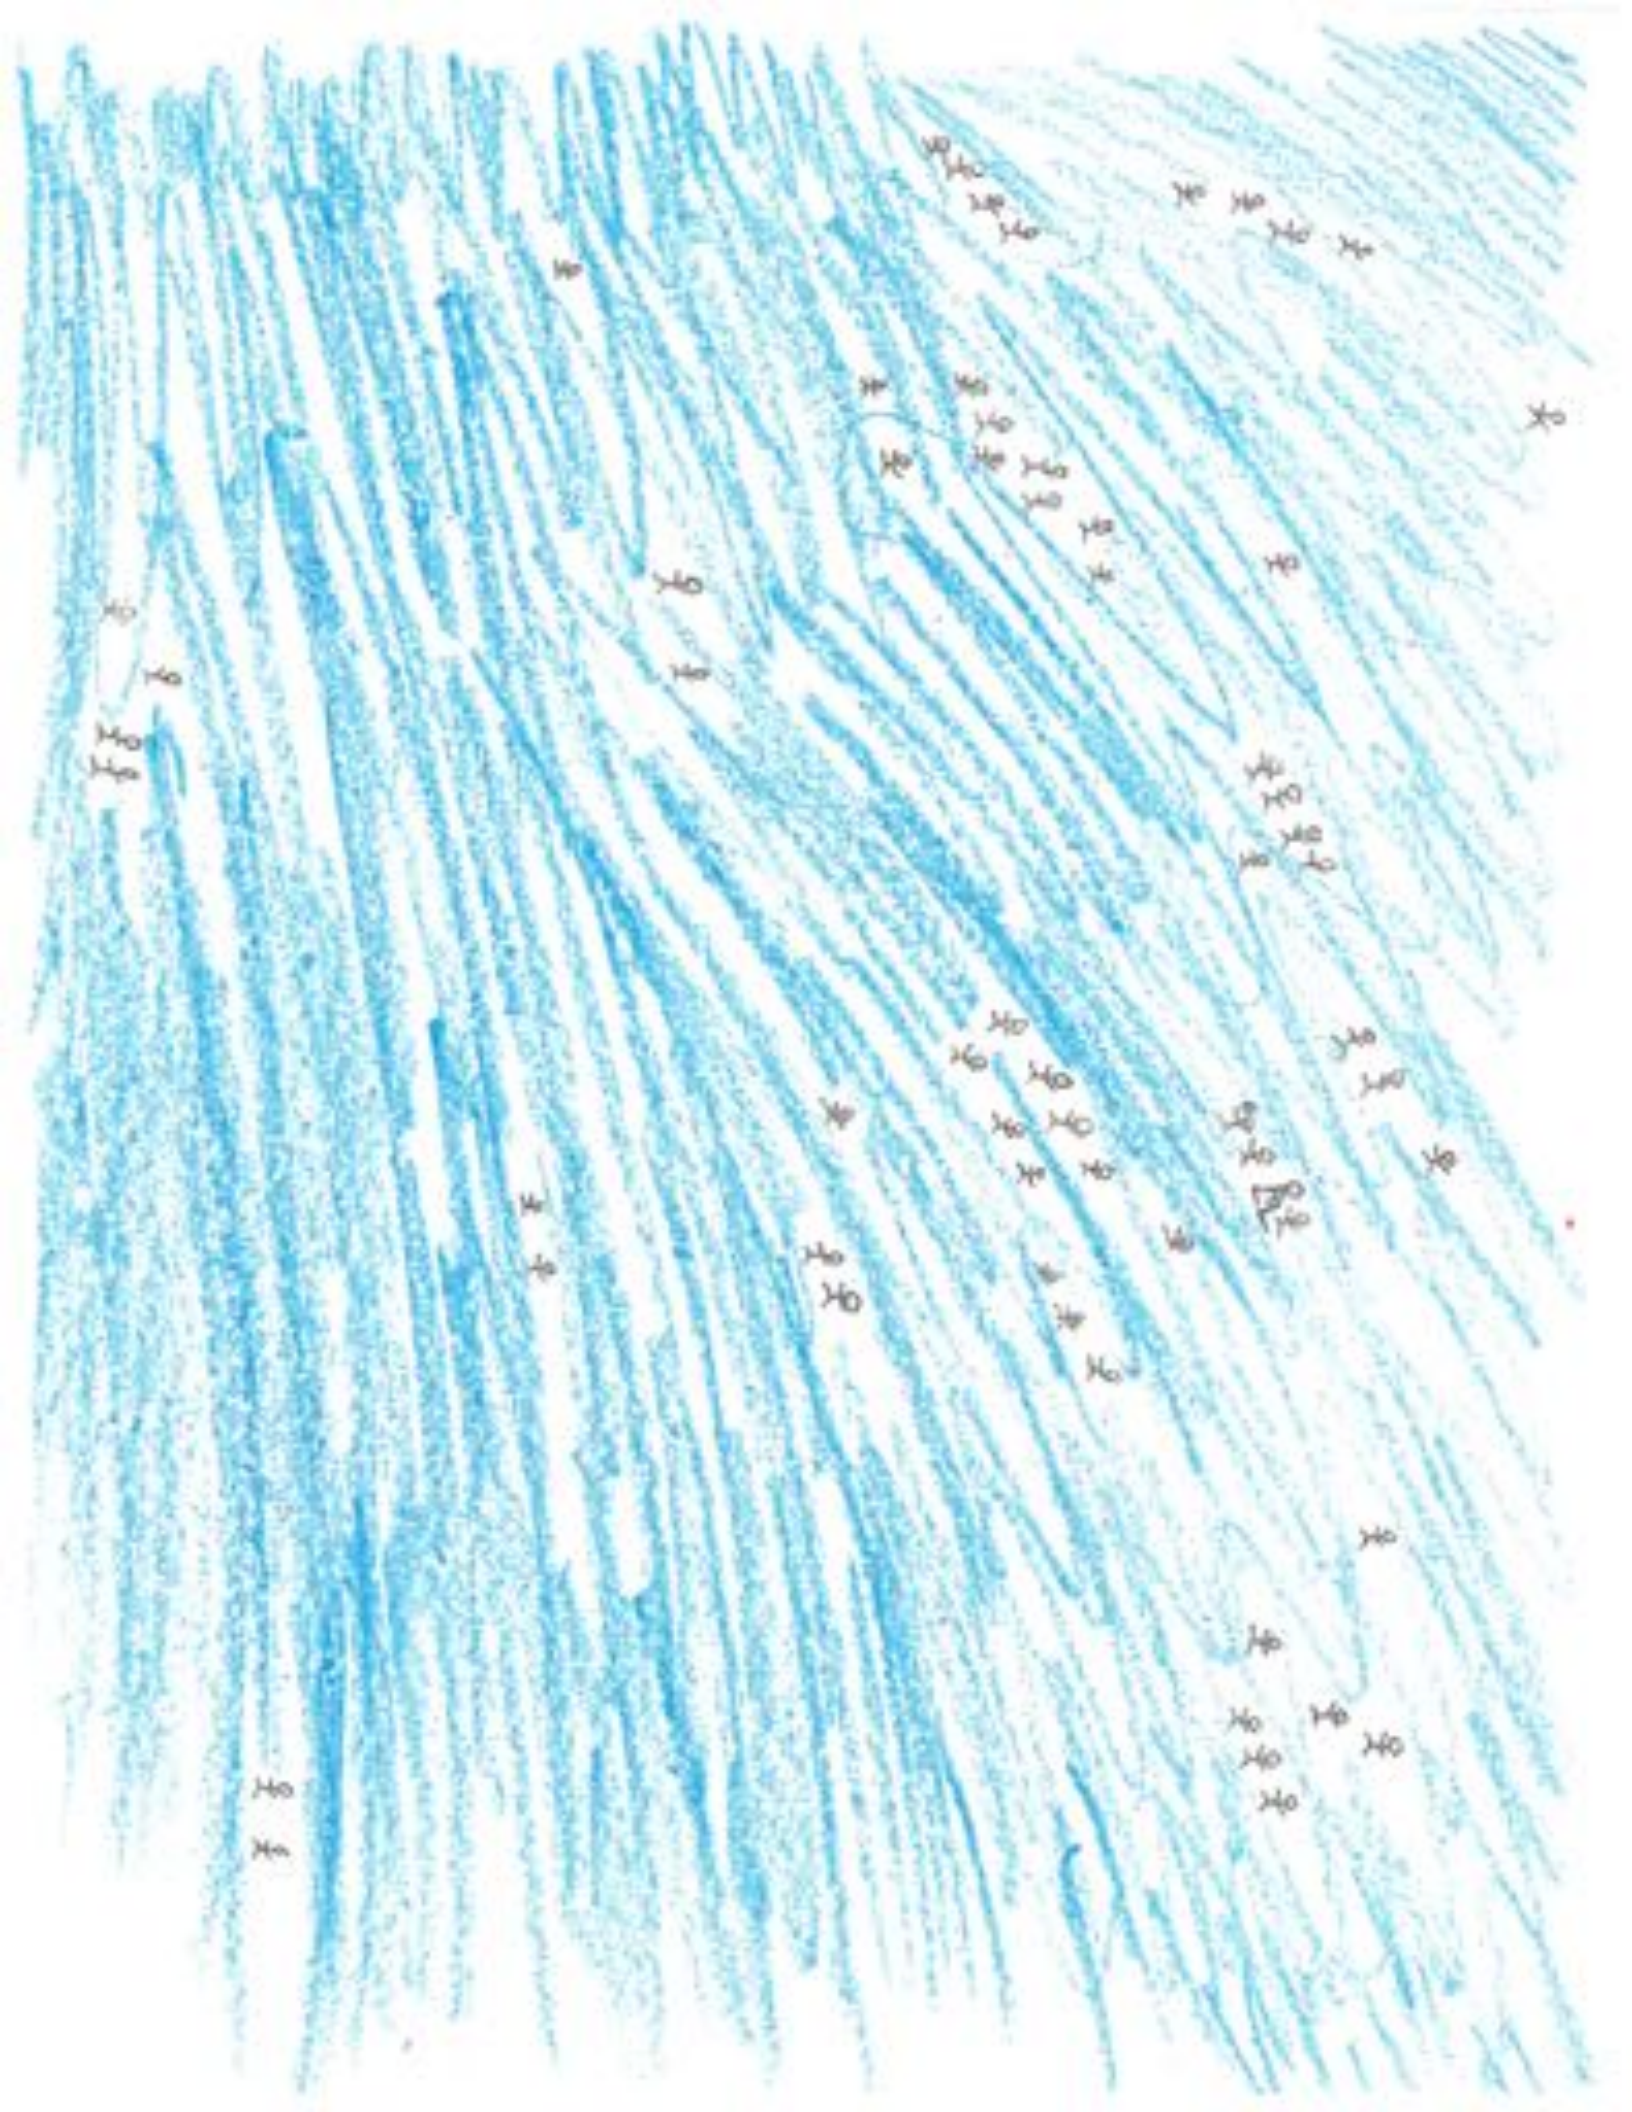

If I could fly like an eagle I would go to heaven, another dimension, Patch Cucumber, Michigan.

I want to go to heaven so I can get away from crazy ppl and drug addicts. I want to go to another dimension because I want to. I want to go to Patch Cucumber because it looks fun and I want to go to Michigan because my reading teacher, Ms. Mukes is from there and she has cancer.

I would go to the beach because it's relaxing and I can make a sand castle even though I never been to the beach before.

I feel angry?

When people fight and talk about me and my family.

I feel better when

people say sorry to me
and give me a hug.

If I was an eagle, I would go to the Galapagos.

I feel angry when people are mean to each other.

I feel better when they apologize to whom they were mean to.

I feel angry when people say mean things to others or start to fight with each other and I feel better when they stop fighting and start being nice to each other.

I became angry when my bus is running late. I said I'm on my way to my grandmother's house. It makes me so mad that I start walking. I finally saw the #5 and I got on the bus. I arrived at my grandmother's house and she was glad to see me. I played GTA 5 and I felt much better.

I play the goalie in lacrosse. I block all of the shots that the other team throws at me. I stand at the end of the field, so people have to run towards me.

Where I would go

I would go to Chile. In Chile there are great skiing mountains and when you get to the bottom there are great beaches to surf on. Then, I would fly to Malta and meet Steve Aoki.

English: If I could fly like an eagle I would go to Hawaii so I could see the beaches and swim in the ocean. I would stay for two weeks.

Spanish: Si yo pudiera (al) volar como un águila, yo iría a Hawaii. Queriera ver las playas y nadar en el océano. Me quedaría dos semanas.

I feel angry when people talk about my family.
I feel better when my friends is nice to me.

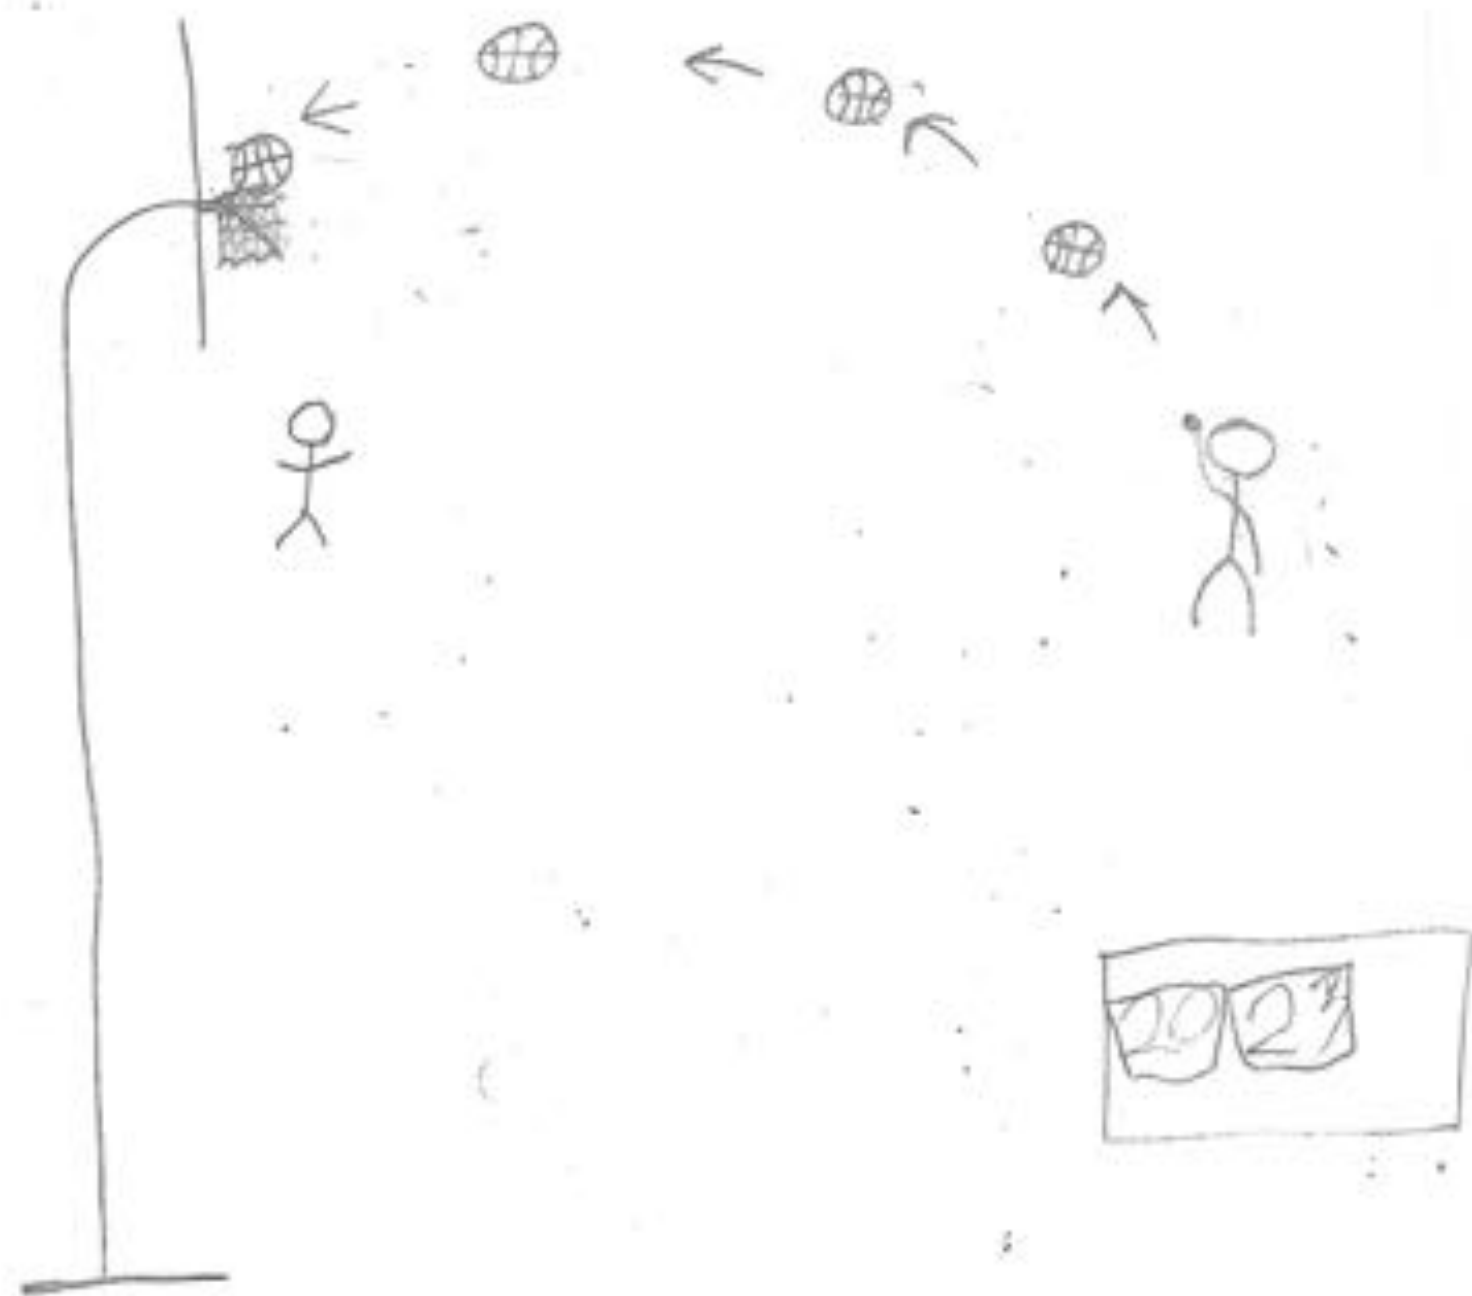

If I could drive I would go to New York and Hawaii. I will buy a house

I would travel to Madrid, Madrid strikes me as a kind of Europe like, where the surroundings are a totally alien, but still very different. It seems like a place where all the cultural differences have been out, because many things are different, but you can't find it in Spain. We share the same, we have so many things, but still, it's a different kind of life. It's a different kind of life, what you see is monumental, different things, you can see a similar, but there's a big difference. It's a different kind of life, it's a different kind of life, it's a different kind of life.

this make me happy

I became angry when a bully took my basketball

I became angry when I was in general like boys used to call me out of my name and when I talked about them got a bit irritable instead of them

it makes me angry when people talk about my family.

I feel better when they stop talking about my family.

It calms me down

When I get my iPhone!

I became angry when this boy
keep talking about he wants to fight
me. punch my punching bag so I can calm down.

Jon Whelan

I felt angry when my cat Rose chewed on my brand new leather purse.

I feel better when I take a deep breath to forget.

Angry

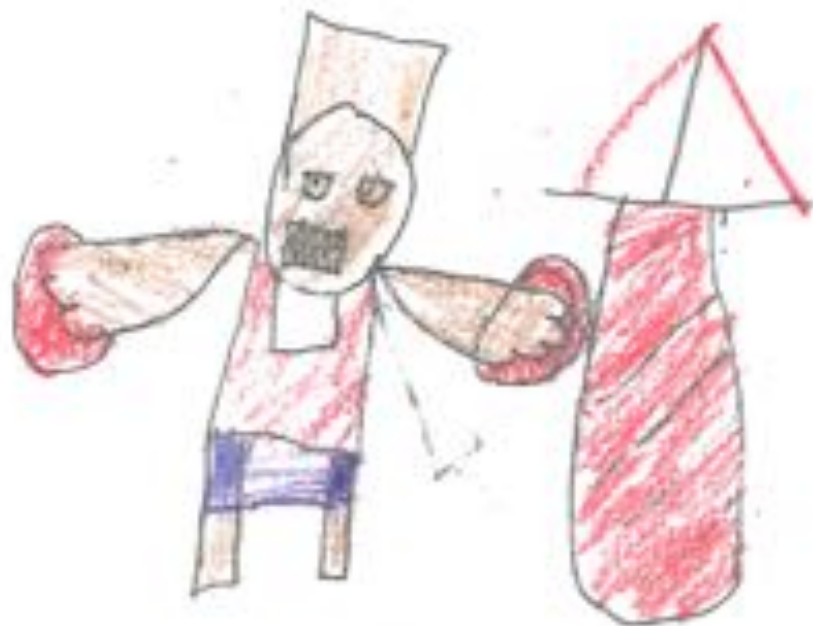

Bad roads
people who don't follow traffic signals

Better

deep breaths
exercise, yoga, running being outside rainy days

I become angry about many things, often an insatiable spark of anger, like a wire shorting out, cut & shut off the power, flip the fuse, as it were, most of the time. When I'm at home, though, I feel less restricted, less cautious, and I forget to flip the fuse. The wire fuse and with one last a pop, warning clearly, bang over in the far vision of the house.

Where do I want to go?

Where do I want to go?

I want to go to Miami because... Miami have great big beaches. I like to get in the water.

I would fly to Mars. I have never travelled in space and would like to experience weightlessness. I would like to see the terrain of Mars, and be the first person to travel there. I would search for signs of life before returning home.

What makes me angry is when I see homeless people and crack-heads on the corners selling weed and smoking. Also seeing young girls on the streets wearing inappropriate clothes and smoking, fighting, not taking care of the children, and not having a part-time job on a full-time job.

A way we can fix those things is making more associations for the communities.

I feel angry because I don't like where people hit me or I don't like where people cross at me?

Once there a princess named Rowena. She really wanted to go to the Netherlands. Her fairy godmother granted this wish and she went. Yay! the end.

Note: It rains orange soda at night.

Welcome

Rowena

 I Hate You!

Do you need a hat
 I like your jacket
 How are you today

I feel angry I fall and everybody laughs

I feel better if I try to laugh
 with them

I would go to Jackson Mississippi I would see how it is in Jackson and I would see the playing boys I want to be like were and to be on TV for the first time and to dance with them
 and I would go to one of the world's houses

I would like to go to Ireland and dance and sing and find gold

If I could fly like an eagle, I would go to Ireland, Bali, Turkey,
